Key Selling Points

- The EVA foam material is lightweight, stiff, and shock-absorbent so it protects your device without being heavy.
- The work-in design lets you work on your device as it sits securely inside the case.
- A convenient, zippered front pocket carries flash drives and other miscellaneous materials you need to work.
- Elastic corner straps inside the case help hold your device in place.
- Inside the case, a slender layer of foam on one side and raised ridges on the other provide added protection for your device.
